

A high-angle, wide shot of a busy port. In the foreground, a large blue gantry crane with 'QC07' and 'ZIMMER' markings is positioned over a ship's deck. The ship's deck is covered with stacks of yellow and red shipping containers. To the right, a vast yard is filled with numerous stacks of colorful shipping containers (yellow, red, blue, green). In the background, a large white warehouse with 'NORTH PORT' written on its side is visible. The port is situated along a body of water, with a city skyline visible in the distance under a clear sky.
